REYNOLDS & SON, BARRE, VT.

Smallpox on a British Bark.
New York, May 8.—The British bark Baldwin, from Macoris, has been detained at quarantine for disinfection because two of the crew had smallpox on the voyage. The Baldwin was at Port of Spain, Trinidad, where smallpox is epidemic, and one of the sailors contracted the disease shortly after sailing for Macoris. On arrival at Macoris the bark was put in quarantine for thirty-three days. Another case developed there. No new cases have occurred since sailing.

Bulgaria Returns Turkish Note.
Constantinople, May 8.—The Bulgarian government has returned the port's note on the subject of the incursion of Bulgarian bands into Macedonia and the importation of explosives into Turkey from Bulgaria to the Ottoman commissioner at Sofia in consequence of what the government of Bulgaria describes as "its offensive terms." The mustering of Turkish troops continues in Macedonia and Albania, where soon 165 battalions will be distributed.

Pope Receives Roosevelt's Gift.
Rome, May 8.—The Rev. Father Baudin, former provincial of the American Passionist fathers, and the Rev. Father Francis J. Van Antwerp of Detroit, Mich., were received in private audience by the pope and presented to the pontiff President Roosevelt's jubilee gift of ten handsome volumes of presidential messages. Father Van Antwerp also presented a golden scroll containing the signatures of 25,000 Americans and Canadians.

Daniel J. Kelly Located.
St. Louis, May 8.—As the result of a quiet search in New York for Daniel J. Kelly, who is wanted on indictment on legislative bribery charges in Missouri, it is believed that Attorney General Crow knows more about Kelly's whereabouts than he will divulge and that Kelly soon will be in custody. It has been reported here that Kelly is under surveillance, and his capture is expected at any time.

No Christians Massacred.
Vienna, May 8.—The officials of the foreign office here say there is absolutely no foundation for the report published by a news agency in the United States yesterday that 9,000 Christian inhabitants of Novi-Bazar, Bosnia, had been massacred by Moslems. Austria maintains three garrisons in the district of Novi-Bazar, and everything is quiet there.

Victory For Moroccan Rebels.
Melilla, Morocco, May 8.—The rebels have defeated the imperial forces after a ten hours' fight near Fez and have captured the positions held by the sultan's troops, all their tents and much loot. Both sides lost heavily. The rebels sent messengers to the pretender asking for re-enforcements, as they were unable to withstand a further attack. The re-enforcements, however, were not sent.

Dr. Lorenz In New Orleans.
New Orleans, May 8.—Five hundred doctors gathered at the Charity hospital to witness another demonstration by Dr. Adolf Lorenz of his method of bloodless surgery. There was an unusual attendance of crippled children and their parents, the latter anxious to have their little ones selected as subjects for the demonstration. Some of the scenes were affecting.

CHINESE INVADE CHICAGO.

Windy City Making Desperate Effort to Keep Clean.
Chicago, May 7.—Chinese are flocking to Chicago to take advantage of this golden opportunity to engage in the laundry business. They are coming direct from Rip Lung, the "king of Chinatown" in San Francisco, and reporting to Sam Lee, to be distributed by him among the twenty-seven laundries that he controls here.

Hotels and restaurants have managed to get their most urgent needs filled by out of town laundries, but they are still far from being in a comfortable position. Waiters in nearly all of the large downtown restaurants appeared yesterday in black jackets and low cut vests, instead of the spotless or more recently very much spotted white garments furnished by the house.

Efforts are being made to settle the trouble between the workmen in the steam laundries and their employers, but so far little progress has been made.

St. Louis laundrymen have dealt a blow to the cause of the Chicago laundry owners by refusing to handle any more of the work sent to them while the strike of the laundry workers continues.

REBELS STILL ACTIVE.

Zelaya's Government in Nicaragua in a Dilemma.
New Orleans, May 7.—News has reached this city by mail by a thoroughly reliable source that the Nicaraguan revolution is not at an end and that the government forces are so situated that they are unable to cross Lake Nicaragua to attack the points where the revolutionary forces are fortified. Fort San Carlos, one of the points captured by the revolutionary forces, is situated at the mouth of the San Juan river.

It is this river which is used to carry all the exports to the interior of the republic, and without the use of the river it is impossible to move large forces of troops. Fort Castillo, midway down the river, is in the hands of the revolutionary body, and the gunboat owned by the Zelaya government also has been captured.

Seek Madonia's Slaying in Pittsburgh.
Pittsburgh, Pa., May 7.—New York detectives are searching among the Italians here for evidence against the men arrested for the murder of Benedetto Madonia. In company with Pittsburgh officers, assisted by Captain Walsh of the United States secret service, they are working night and day on the case. They visited the Webster avenue district and in a short time arrested four Italians. These men were sweated for two hours by Detective Aymer, who speaks Italian. The information obtained from them is being withheld by the detectives, but it is said that a number of politis were secured by Sergeant Cherry which will be of value in clearing the barrel mystery.

Colonels Sentenced to Death.
Manila, May 7.—Colonel Aurado Santos and Colonel Marcelo Delacruz, leaders of the recent insurrection in Rizal province, have been convicted of brigandage and conspiracy and have been sentenced to death. The date for their execution is not fixed, as the supreme court must review the case.

Lockout Broken.
Ballston, N. Y., May 7.—The lockout at the National Folding Box and Paper company's mill has been broken. The company made an offer to the employees in response to their demands for increased wages and recognition of the Federation of Labor. It was accepted. Both sides refuse to disclose the terms of settlement.

THE PANAMA CANAL TREATY

Columbian Congress Not Likely to Ratify It.

MAY NOT EVEN BE ASKED TO

President Marroquin Alone, Through Peculiar Constitutional Prerogative, May Be Able to Give Us Clear Title to Isthmus.

Washington, May 7.—The latest advice received here indicates that President Marroquin of Colombia has almost decided not to call a special session of the Colombian congress to act upon the Panama canal treaty. When the call was issued for an election of the members of the Colombian congress it was the intention to call a special session about the 11th inst., the call naming the Panama treaty as the first subject to be considered, financial measures to follow. But the opposition developed to the treaty has been more pronounced than the president supposed, and he has thus far refrained from naming the day of meeting, hoping that as the election progressed (for they are not simultaneous) the government would be reasonably sure of a majority to carry out its program.

Opposition Continues to Gain.
But the opposition continues to gain and the prospects for a government majority are so doubtful that President Marroquin now seems indisposed to act. In that event the Colombian congress would, under the constitution, assemble July 20 in regular session. At that session it might take up the canal treaty, but the congress would not be under the same compulsion to consider the treaty that it would be at a special session, and much doubt is felt here as to whether or not the treaty would be taken up at all.

This outlook, however, does not discourage the officials who had to do with the making of the treaty. The United States government has gone so far in its negotiations with Colombia that confidence is felt here that President Marroquin will feel himself bound to carry out the engagements into which he has entered.

Marroquin May Ratify Treaty.
The Colombian constitution contains some peculiar paragraphs enlarging the powers of the executive in case of disturbed conditions beyond any degree known in the United States, and if there is the slightest sign of forcible opposition to the government or of revolutionary uprisings such as have been hinted at in the stories from Kingston, Jamaica, and from isthmian points, indicative of a purpose to sever the isthmus from Colombian sovereignty, the president may arrogate to himself dictatorial power and himself go to the length of ratifying the canal treaty with the United States. If he does so the United States government will sustain the title thus acquired.

Would Be Strikers Enjoined.
St. Louis, May 7.—According to a decision rendered by the local steamboat inspectors in the case of the Wiggins Ferry company against the striking marine engineers, the pilots, engineers or other licensed employees of steamboats are restrained from striking on pain of having their licenses taken from them. The licenses of thirty of the striking engineers were revoked. The Marine Engineers' association, acting for the men, will appeal from the decision to the officials at Washington. If that procedure shall fail the matter will be taken into the courts.

Roosevelt In the Grand Canyon.
Grand Canyon, Ariz., May 7.—President Roosevelt is sightseeing in the Grand canyon of Arizona. His special train arrived at 9 o'clock in the morning. Horses were in waiting for the president and his party, and several expeditions were soon formed for the purpose of exploring the canyon. The president, Governor Murphy of Arizona, President Butler of Columbia college and the president's physician composed one party. It was their intention to spend most of the day in the saddle.

Red Cross Delegates.
Washington, May 7.—The delegates to represent the United States at the international conference at Geneva, Switzerland, for the purpose of revising and extending the Geneva treaty of 1864, under which the various Red Cross societies are recognized, have been designated by the president. They are Francis B. Loomis, the assistant secretary of state; General George B. Davis, judge advocate general of the army, and Commander Nathan Sargent, U. S. N.

Suicide Epidemic in Buffalo.
Buffalo, May 7.—Three suicides have occurred here within twenty-four hours—Charles Fox, a traveling salesman, Mrs. Helen Oatman, and Mrs. Anna Woodman. All died from the effects of carbolic acid poisoning. Mrs. Woodman came here from Cleveland several months ago and was in poor health. No cause is known for Mrs. Oatman's act. Fox was despondent, being out of work.

THE MONTREAL STRIKE.

Longshoremen in United States Promise to Aid Canadian Unions.

Montreal, May 7.—The strike situation is practically unchanged. Efforts to have the teamsters and their employers confer failed because the latter would not admit the American officers of the union to the conference.

A hundred more coal carters have gone out, thereby tying up the retail coal trade and in addition about 100 drivers employed by small firms.

The officers of the longshoremen announce that they have received word that the wharf laborers of Boston, Portland and all other United States ports have officially assured them that they will not handle any freight handled at this port by nonunion men.

Close Count in Baltimore.

Baltimore, May 7.—The ballots in 304 of the election precincts at the municipal election in this city give Robert M. McLane, Democratic candidate for the mayoralty, a plurality over Frank M. Wachter, Republican, of 520. The ballots in the remaining four precincts are still uncounted, owing to disputes among the judges of election. They are now in possession of the board of election supervisors. It is not thought probable that the count of these ballots will materially change the result.

A BRITISH WARNING

Lansdowne Says Persian Gulf Must Be Neutral.

LIKE MONROE DOCTRINE.

London Newspapers Compare Foreign Secretary's Policy to That Enunciated by American President—Safety of Route to India.

London, May 7.—Foreign Secretary Lansdowne has proclaimed a British Monroe doctrine in the Persian gulf and has practically notified the competing powers that any attempt on their part to establish a naval base or fortified post in those waters means war with Great Britain.

"I say without hesitation," said the foreign secretary dealing with the subject in the house of lords, "that we should regard the establishment of a naval base or a fortified port in the Persian gulf by any other power as a very grave menace to British interests, and we should certainly resist it with all the means at our disposal."

Lord Lansdowne preceded this explicit enunciation of British policy by a review of the situation there, as it affected British interests, contending that so far as the navigation of the Persian gulf was concerned Great Britain held a position different to that of the other powers, both because it was owing to British enterprise and expenditure of life and money that the gulf was now open to the commerce of the world, and because the protection of the sea route to India necessitated British predominance in the gulf.

Lord Lansdowne's attitude in this matter generally meets with approval, although the answers thereto of the other powers interested in the gulf are awaited with some anxiety.

The newspapers here comment on the analogy of the present proceeding, which Captain Mahan so strongly recommended, to the United States' policy of Monroeism. The Westminster Gazette holds that the British motive—namely, the protection of the sea route to India—corresponds exactly with the Americans' motive in excluding European powers from American waters because their territory is thereby threatened.

Corsean Capuchins Expelled.

Paris, May 7.—A dispatch from Bastia, Corsica, says the Capuchins who had been barricaded in their monastery there for many days have been expelled by the police, a detachment of infantry and a number of gendarmes. The friars, who had been without food for two days owing to the state of siege, refused the final demand of the authorities to take down their barricades, and the doors were then broken in with axes and the friars were arrested. About 2,000 persons made a demonstration against the authorities, but they were dispersed.

Draper's Lodge Loses Its Charter.

New York, May 7.—Grand Master Elbert Crandall's address, read at the one hundred and twenty-second annual convocation of the grand lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of New York state, revealed the fact that an investigation had been made into Doric lodge, No. 280, which admitted "Shane" Draper, the alleged gambler, and that its charter had been taken away at the command of the grand master. Members through whose influence Draper was admitted are now on trial, and all proved guilty will be punished.

Another Strike in Schenectady.

Schenectady, N. Y., May 7.—The members of the Plumbers' union have gone on strike, to the number of seventy-one, and the building trades are tied up in consequence, so far as the completion of construction work is concerned. The men insist that they will hold out for their demands—$4 for an eight hour day—while their employers are equally insistent that they will not yield to their employees.

FEUDISTS IN BAD MOOD.

Marcum's Murderer Unsought and Reporter Told to Leave Town.

Lexington, Ky., May 7.—Specials received here from Jackson say that the murder of James R. Marcum probably will never be known. With the exception of a brief search made about five minutes after the shooting there has been no pronounced effort to discover the assassin. The town is quiet, and it is next to impossible to get any one to talk. The correspondent has been advised by a friend that it would be more than well for him to leave on the first train.

The only words uttered by Marcum after he was shot were, "My God, they have killed me!" The entire side of his face was badly powder burned. The assassin stood immediately over him in firing the last shot. The peculiar feature about the murder is that no man has or will advance a theory about the shooting or as to the probable identity of the assassin.

Deputy Sheriff B. J. Ewen, who was standing beside Marcum, said that he ran at the sound of the first shot and did not see the person who fired the shot. Another gentleman, who would not permit the use of his name, says that Ewen told him he saw the man, knew who he was, but could not tell because his life would pay the forfeit. The funeral of Marcum has taken place at the Presbyterian church, Rev. A. C. Dorris officiating. A great many women, but few men, were present. The burial took place in Mr. Marcum's private burial ground.

Fatal Fight at a Dance.

Bay City, Mich., May 7.—During a free fight at a hotel dance in Big Creek, Tuscola county, Dave Trombley, aged thirty-five, of West Bay City was shot dead. In the fight Harry Schindler, aged thirty, of this city was fatally slashed with a knife, and Frank Defoe, aged twenty-eight, single, was seriously cut. All three were fishermen employed on the bay. The participants in the fight tell conflicting stories, and no arrests will be made until after the inquest.

Pain in the back is a never failing sign of kidney disease; another sure sign is the condition of the urine; if you have a pain in the back then look to the condition of your urine.
